Mission Monad

Truth is my Compass, & Wisdom my Helm.

*once you know,
you cannot unknow.
once you have seen,
you can never unsee.
once you have allowed yourself to feel,
you are freed from silence;
for the submergence of one's truth only births havoc within the self.*

Intrusive Ideation: 041

Perception can be a key or a shackle.

Symptoms are an alarm signal triggered by your immune system. But when a diagnosis, which is the categorization of a cluster of symptoms, becomes a personality feature, shame is overprescribed to ensure that the root cause remains unattended.

Psychiatry performs sorcery by weaponizing scientific taxonomy to colonize the psyche.

You have to wonder why biogenic and metabolic symptoms, such as insomnia, irritability, impulsivity, and mood dysregulation, are hyper-stigmatized despite being most treatable. In contrast, personality disorders that are purely psychogenic and cannot be cured are seemingly less socially reprehensible.

The diagnoses that permit chemical incarceration through the diagnosis are most profitable, as though a diagnosis becomes a charge and the prescription becomes the sentence. Who is overrepresented within the prison-industrial complex? Who is overmedicated in the medical-industrial complex?

Did the prison become an asylum?

Did prescriptions manufacture spiritual sharecropping?

Do you see any semblance of religious damnation? The formula requires an asymmetrical proposition of relativity, and state power to enforce material dispossession.

The burning at the stake, or the tree lynchings have only changed the setting and format. Bureaucracy makes sadism seem civilized because it's procedural.

You can't make this shit up. Earth is raggedy. Can we change the fucking channel!

Eve to Eve

I am an old-world relic, trained for the empire's demolition, which makes my savagery elegant, and my carnal desires opaque.

However, the delicacy of lesbianism feels as sacred as a womb that gestates love while transcending the occupation of her uterus.

And yet, the procurement of reproductive organs through hysterectomies and mastectomies is maintained through medical neglect and the amplification of reactive misogyny to extract an exquisite source of stem cells.

The pillage of woman's intrinsic regenerativity is recursive.

Ideological Restructuring

Because activism did not meet the metrics to support material change whilst exceeding the threshold for nervous system dysregulation, I propose existentialism as the new rollout, in which virtual signaling and trauma bonding will seem primitive and diseased.

*As long as we understand the stakes, we'll value

Civil War: Proposal

Although fireworks may stem from strategic arson, I do believe we can have bonfires and rave parties with roasted vegetables and sauerkraut.

Pass the Rake

If it takes a village to raise a child, what will be required to save a planet?

Kindness can regenerate a society, but it must be strategically rooted in collective resilience.

Remember:

Health sustains harmony.
As within, so without.

A drought cannot water a seed, and a seed cannot grow without water.

Love is osmotic.

Intrusive Ideation: 040

Indefinite Quarantine

Trickle Tsunami

Asynchronous and asymmetrical destabilization diffuses precarity, which staggers the formation of collective resistance.

The reception of our perception is dysregulated to manage attrition.

“Who do you

Salient Clarity

Your ignorance and shame

Parasites are not fit for potlucks;
they turn the feast into a famine.

Intrusive Ideation: 039

Misogynoir is a support group that enrolls individuals who suffer from a genetic awareness of their non-consensual origin. The unconscious impulse to denigrate Black women is evidence of cellular awareness that facilitates a cheap social bonding mechanism for individuals who lack the molecular specifications for evolution.

Per the AmeriKKKan chattel genocide, Antebellum South, and Jim Crow Era, many of you collage fragments of mimetic inflationary delusions of grandeur would not be alive if your fifth great-grandmother didn't have a wet nurse who milked her Black titty to give your lineage life support.

Remember that.

Bold Warmth

A lot of these credentials and market assets be looking like perfume, but y'all metabolic health is dysfunctional and your pheromones be snitching on your soul.

*Fuck what you've been told.
You ain't got a truthful

Cosmic Counsel

If you're breathing, you have the authority to breach ancestral contracts and restore the covenant of your foremothers.

You are responsible for the actions of your soul.

Blood in, Deed out.

Dear Leeloo,

Because I haven't smelled a flower in half a decade, any proximity to your nectar may cause my skin to sneeze, but my heart is yours to squeeze.

Liminal Dispatch: Bureaucratic Hazing Rituals

You throw stones of silence but your hubris is

I cracked stasis; you mofo's are

Time will reset; My squad

Framing Defines the Frame

Metabolized trauma that has been integrated with an archetypal framework can develop a person's psychological immune system and stimulate self-actualization.

Categorically speaking, atrocities and genocides are plagues we ought never to romanticize.

And yet, this society manufactures the circumstances of trauma and then wields shame to demand the arrested development of your soul.

This is a double bind and a torturous maze of structured entrapment.

By the divinity bestowed upon you, you are licensed to narrate the interpretation of your life. You are the sole editor of your authored rendering. I implore you to lust for alchemy as the subtext.

Research Findings on Executable Functionality

By the nature of my incarnation, I am a Mandated Reporter. In the structures that have informed my lived experience, as a double-blind, I have enacted the duties of a mandated reporter, while also being a harmed vulnerable individual, for whom innumerable individuals had documented grounds to advocate for my safety.

Over the course of a twenty-plus-year longitudinal somatic sociological data collection, derived from a multivariate spectrum of private and public-funded social ecosystems, with empirical clarity, harm is a production that operates as a trade secret.

Bureaucracy weaponizes rhetoric to sedate your instinctual clarity while ensuring corrective systems are negligibly funded to justify the intended structural maintenance of harm.

Consequently, as a Mandated Reporter, I do not submit my claims for the theatre of sadists who administer procedural violence in the cosplay of legitimacy.

I exist as the evidence.

My God is not humble, and nor am I.

My credibility is vouched for by time.

The maze of structural violence was never designed for my humanity to remain intact.

And therefore, the constitution, and the Democratic Crosdressing Oligarchy of these United States has always intended the annihilation of my sanity and ancestry.

I hereby plead, No Contest.

If the game is rigged, its rules are evicted.

Undetermined Jurisdiction

Earth is an infirmary under a cosmic custodial dispute. We bear the DNA of a multiplicity of origins. For that reason, we can neither be claimed by light nor dark, or any of their representatives, on the basis of genetic miscegenation.

Therefore, Free Will has been the granted inheritance that determines with whom our guardianship is claimed.

If, as a collective, we truly understood the stakes of the hour, I fear your aorta would be an insufficient conduit for the charge of clarity that would surge within your vehicle.

Even still, these earthly years are a vetting process for your immortal residence.

Invictus

In truth, we trust.

I assured you that I'd never lose my way because our love is quantum coded.

Between truth and love, I'd denounce incongruence if it shared my mitochondria. To the Galactic Authorities, I would volunteer the coordinates of my star system if I knew they misunderstood contrition to sustain their appetite for spiritual malnutrition.

From whence I split from source into an individuated soul, I have never borne the constitution that would choose company if it violated my conviction.

Death is a promise; Aligned living is an opportunity.

My Ancestors are Comedians

“No one knows the goat is a good advisor,” is the name of the karmic debt collector.

Christ Consciousness is a network that your sentience must opt into.

The package is beyond interception.

The Holy Spirit eliminates intermediaries. The transmission defies decryption.

Honey,
it's time to unshrink
the kids— and ourselves.

Erotic Symbiosis

If love were a transplant, may our hearts become fused
at the root,

From where the Tree of Life will bear cosmic fruit.

Cut the Cap

Herd membership is predicated upon synchronized choreography that protects a screenplay of social power dynamics that maintain group co-regulation.

By our mammalian nature, we are engineered to equate belonging with survival.

But lions and mongooses do not bathe with zebras.

Android and Apple devices are not running the same software.

Your individuation is contingent upon demonstrating your embodied clarity by syncing with compatibility through internal permission that prioritizes authenticity.

If you do not belong to yourself, you cannot belong.

Stained Glass

Before you can kiss the bride, she has to lift the veil.

I got the broom;
May the Gods hail.

Heated Cerebellum

I am convinced that the impulse to pathologize matters that exceed the insular framework of institutional functionaries who execute imperial algorithms of domination is the mere enactment of a colonial reflex that protects the fragility of their existential sterility.

Many impoverished people perform their class aspirations and delusions, but the politics of functional wealth is embodied physically and intellectually. In this gamified construct of an economic carceral system of citizenship, what cannot be subject to dispossession is gold.

Bearing phenomenological authorship of our somatic inference of perceptual awareness is a domain under incessant epistemic genocide. I decry the occupation of ontological intrusion that projects consensus reality upon my opulent interiority.

I do not live in the desert with you. Nor do I demand you relish in the jungle of my soul's abode. However, you have neither squatter's rights nor an invitation to loiter. Therefore, you'd best skedaddle your buttocks away from my insurrectionary imagination.

Albedo

The psychic dismemberment of my nervous system was splattered across the timeline.

In pursuit of my reconstitution,
I employed scripture to perform soul surgery.

Stitches:

- Dissolution is the prelude for emergence.
- Disillusionment returns
you to yourself.
- Discernment fortifies peace.

Carceral Democracy

The invitation to provide consent is a prop in the ritual of consensus domination.

If you ain't an Indian, your cowboy ass better know the timeline and shuffle your tongue to support your lifeline.

Dorothy McGowan: No One Knows

When the Advocate circumvents murder by constructive homicide, the law becomes a fairy tale because civil conspiracy meets the threshold of legal felony.

Who needs to rise from concrete when you reign from the shadow?

Consortium

i. If submerging into the abyss is the only way to taste the sun, I chose to run into the darkness because, from light, the story of destiny gains flight.

ii. The splendor derived from mourning the innocence of an abiding faith in the human species is learning how the static of projection compromises clarity. Although it may seem morally beneficent, it makes the regal appear feeble.

iii. The stowaway was contraband on a timer. The Captain's Quarters gon' have to send me an escort.

Whole Soul

Love is not complicated;
it is dynamic.

However, when society calcification into a moral hierarchy, nuance is decontextualized and foments disintegration.

“Procedural asymmetry and

Divine Seed

Turn your haters into fertilizer and await God's Harvest.

The feast will be sweet.

Decolonial Q+A #24

If poverty and dispossession coerce entrapment through bureaucratic manipulation and administrative sorcery, does murder become a mechanism for bargaining?

The management of supply and demand, akin to law and order, requires modulation through checks and balances that are informed by aligned incentives.

Mayday Denied

I built the ship amidst the storm;
my soul fractured to transform.

I steadied my calm
when bureaucratic silence was wielded to embalm.

Although I was wailing on the seafloor, I can now see the shore.

When I dock, you must understand that I am built for war.

Your silence made you an enemy of my Lord.

By sound, you will taste
the veracity of my sword.

Misogynoir, the Hobby of Colonized Serfs

Fruit flies and elephants do not share comparable life cycles, nor ecological functions.

Therefore, when dusty Shanaynay with her pufferfish face gets animated when you step into the grocery store with your EBT card, remember this bitch maxed out on life potential in middle school.

Imagine:

Beefing with a Goddess buying blueberries on EBT—Bendito, you basic hoe.

*She can't help but reenact the highlights from her

Trust me; I know.

But don't pity this

Just apply prayer as Raid

Inebriated Womb: 07

All things considered, I believe racism contaminates the luxury of lesbianism.

Not because colonialism and chattel slavery are unrelated, but the residual codependency to patriarchy is enacted through the maintenance of racial hierarchies.

And my clit bears much grief.
It is a heavy burden I carry as a philogynist.

Brimstone and Prayer

As a somatic sociologist committed to identifying, through direct experience, the skills required to ensure self-regulated survival within intentional ecosystems, I assert that communication skills are a foundational precursor for relational safety.

Over the course of my 37 years on planet Earth, I have resided in: the projects, as the eldest child in a Nigerian Cinderella story, in foster care, a non-profit group home in suburbia, in elite academic dorms, urban and rural communes, a farm in Argentina, in psych wards, in jails, in squats, and in supportive housing.

I have felt safest in a jail and in the squat because in those environments, there seemed to be a distinct understanding of self-governance facilitating peace. In every other environment, people were extremely reckless in ways that were obviously dangerous, if not lethal, from my stance of awareness.

We humans are the currency. The denomination, the metal coin, is only a symbol that facilitates the extraction of our time, awareness, consciousness, energy, and attention.

As the demolition of our dilapidated social order in late-stage capitalism is engulfed, I implore us to remember there is no humanity without humans; there is no society without social interactions that are predicated upon mutual harmony.

So if you think that you are the head bitch at your place of employment, if you think that you can pay people enough, to acquiesce to your vitriol and psychopathy, I need you to hear the horn. I need you to feel the trumpet.

You ain't never been shit, and now you're about to know it. Some of you are irredeemable. We gotta watch the pathogen self-destruct. Others of you can experience cellular repair. It's a very individuated, self-selected process. Only God knows the way.

The social construct that facilitated hegemony and the structural eugenic genocide of marginal people through gradations of social palatability is wilting rapidly. Therefore, the true disease of our society will bear an unmitigated texture of clarity that many of you cannot sit with. Your nervous system will self-implode.

My deepest fear is that some of you are inheriting the illnesses of your ancestors for which you did not choose; however, you do not know how to disown. Only God can be your shepherd. I am merely a goat watching from a distance.

I impart unto you:

Act your bloodline, not your lineage.

Manufactures' Notice

In the Earth Simulation, our holographic experience is the production of differentiated engineers.

Therefore, the presumption of semblance in sentience is the underlying cause for rampant predation that is socially and legally permissible.

Explicitly speaking, although we inhabit compatible corporeal hardware, a cohort of operating systems has not been licensed by the one true God.

Although I cannot speak declaratively whether Nephilim bloodlines and Neanderthal genetics are the source of the design defect, it is probable that God Source is not compatible with pirate lineages.

Tall Poppies and Fire Flies

The luminosity of those who are granted originality, creativity, sensitivity, resilience, and an abundant interiority becomes the target of bullies, humiliation rituals, and gangstalking.

The pathogenic compulsion of enactors of psychological violence is to force luminous individuals into agreement with self-diminishment.

The objective is to compromise the circuitry that runs a divine voltage by engineering your containment through social, emotional, psychological, and financial abuse and codependency.

The emergent emotional synchronization of this predatory fixation is categorically demonic and not native to Gaia.

The profundity of this pattern is epidemiologically terrifying.

Evil is illogical but persistent.

War is Psychological

Within an Earthly framework, the anointed are the cosmic majority who bear the status of political minority.

Virulent personalities are self-satisfied when they can infect the nervous system of a regulated person.

A typical pattern of contraction:

- pressure → emotional escalation,
- ambiguity → frantic explanation,
- silence → pursuit,
- accusation → self-justification,
- withdrawal → chasing repair.

Pathogenic personalities favor two mechanisms: reactive abuse and stonewalling. In both dynamics, the objective is to override and destabilize your emotional regulation, thereby capitulating power into the script of the intended abuse.

When you are nonreactive, maintain boundaries, and document the premeditated malevolence of their aggression, the compounded timeframe validates the pathological incoherence.

Schematics of Metaphysical Warfare

State administrators are colonial they get bent.

Risk Profile

Institutional cover can be disproportionately realized.

Those who execute orders may be absolved because she who renders the order is the rotten fruit from which the tree can discard.

Dorothy is waiting on this Wicked Witch from the East to dissolve.

She been making $140,000 annually as the Senior Director of Housing under DOHMH.

After I submitted a Grievance Complaint to DOHMH on June 2nd, 2025, to HPD on June 4th, and on June 26th, 2025, and finally to SUS on August 20th 2025, my situation has been a black mirror maze of deflection, ex parte fiction, and multi-agency non-response.

Bureaucratic torture was the weapon wielded against my psyche, but I only put on muscle.

Does HPD habitually issue Abatement Letters with no basis that expire without any housing court intervention?

How frequently does DOHMH inform SUS that an indigent tenant is considering relocation after her grievance complaint has been ignored? However, per the stated concerns in the grievance complaint, the fire extinguishers were installed, and the washing machine was repaired, after a year of neglect. Did Gail Wolsk explicitly select to address building liability concerns, while actively ignoring the safety of my humanity?

Gail Wolsk, why you sending snail mail when you supposed to be the boss?
